Cultural Activities

RATIONALE:

The school provides a range of extra-curricular activities outside the sporting domain. All students are encouraged to become involved in these activities. Beginners and elite students are to be catered for.

PURPOSES:

- 1 The school provides a variety of groups in the following areas – music, drama, dance, debating, chess and theatresports. There is also an inter-cultural group.
- 2 In each of these areas an elite group is chosen through auditions. These students are entitled to senior representative badges.

PROCEDURES:

- 1 An arts co-ordinator oversees cultural purchased, budgets, entries and results.
- 2 Each activity is controlled by a code head or activity head who is responsible for his or her managers, coaches or organisers and liaises with the arts co-ordinator.
- 3 The specific requirements for each activity is given to the student when they join the activity.
