Service

RATIONALE:

Students are encouraged in all areas of school life to be aware of the needs of others. They should include some elements of practical service in their programmes.

PROCEDURES:

- 1 A number of one of activities held annually as important school wide events. These include the World Vision 40 Hour Famine, charity collections and the blood bank.
- 2 Ongoing house based fundraised activities for outside organisations are also encouraged. These include supporting under privileged children in third world countries.
- 3 Many other school based activities require student assistance. These include activities ranging from laboratory monitors to house tutors.
- 4 The Duke of Edinburgh Scheme is very active in the school. It encourages a wide range of challenging activities, including camps and tramps.
